Molendorp releases August, 2019, Disbursement Report; Announces Collector's office will now accept Apple Pay and Google Pay

September 18, 2019(Harrisonville) Cass County Collector of Revenue Chris Molendorp has released August, 2019, property tax disbursement figures for Cass County's local political subdivisions.

Molendorp announced $885,145.10 was disbursed to 56 separate political subdivisions and the State of Missouri. This figure was up nearly $42,000 from August, 2018. This increase reflects the largest delinquent real estate tax sale in Cass County history, held August 26th. The Cass County general fund received $244,991.63 in surplus tax sale funds from the annual sale.

Cass County's 14 public school districts were the largest recipients with total disbursements of $383,402.53. Of those districts, Raymore-Peculiar R-2 received the most at $119,527.73. Belton R-124 received $102,923.64. Harrisonville R-9 received $62,071.98.

The second largest recipients were 19 of Cass County's 23 cities and villages. In total, Molendorp disbursed $70,826.54 in this category with Belton receiving the most at $29,478.81. Raymore received $14,312.06 in property tax distributions and Harrisonville received $6,425.12.

Cass County's 14 Fire and Ambulance districts were the third largest recipients by category at $42,705.62. The South Metropolitan Fire Protection District received $16,066.00. West Peculiar Fire and Ambulance district received the second most in this category at $10,173.42.

Molendorp also announced taxpayers will be able to pay their taxes with Apple and Google pay for 2019. "I'm pleased to announce another payment option for taxpayers this property tax season. Payment processing terminals at our counter at 2725 Cantrell Road have been enabled with this new feature", Molendorp said. Credit and debit card payments may also be made 24 hours a day at www.casscountycollector.com.
